IRS SEEKS NOMINATIONS FOR TE/GE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON – The Internal Revenue Service is seeking nominations for vacancies on the Advisory Committee on Tax Exempt and Government Entities (ACT), which provides a venue for public input into critical tax administrative areas. Two vacancies exist in each of the following customer segments: employee plans, exempt organizations and government entities.

The ACT is an organized public forum for the IRS and representatives who deal with employee plans, exempt organizations, tax-exempt bonds, and state, local and Indian tribal governments. The ACT allows IRS to receive regular input on administrative policy and procedures of the Tax Exempt and Government Entities (TE/GE) Division.

Members will be appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury and will serve two-year terms. Nominations should reflect the proposed member's qualifications. A notice published in the Federal Register on October 30, 2002, (Volume 67, Number 210) contains more details about the ACT and the nomination process.

Nominations should be sent to Steven Pyrek; TE/GE Communications and Liaison Director; Internal Revenue Service; 1111 Constitution Ave. N.W. –T:CL Penn Bldg; Washington, D.C. 20224, or by fax 202-283-9956 (not a toll-free number).
